

Broadcasting Public Notice CRTC 2005-72

Ottawa, 25 July 2005

Call for comments on a request to add Azteca 13 International, TV Chile and TVE Internacional to the lists of eligible satellite services for distribution on a digital basis

1. The Commission has received a request dated 18 March 2005 from Quebecor Media Inc. (Quebecor) for the addition of three non-Canadian services to the lists of eligible satellite services for distribution on a digital basis (the digital lists). Quebecor described the services as follows:

Azteca 13 International: a 24-hour 7 day per week Spanish-language general interest programming service originating from Mexico offering a variety of programming, including drama, movies, sports, music, variety, news and religious. The service is not accompanied by English- or French-language subtitles or secondary audio programming (SAP).

TV Chile: a 24-hour 7 day per week Spanish-language general interest programming service originating from Chile offering a variety of programming, including drama, movies, sports, music, variety, news and religious. The service is not accompanied by English- or French-language subtitles or secondary audio programming (SAP).

TVE Internacional: a 24-hour 7 day per week Spanish-language general interest programming service originating from Spain offering a variety of programming, including movies, sports, music, variety, news, religious, children's, and comedy. The service is not accompanied by English- or French-language subtitles or secondary audio programming (SAP).

2. In Improving the diversity of third-language television services – A revised approach to assessing requests to add non-Canadian third-language television services to the lists of eligible satellite services for distribution on a digital basis, Broadcasting Public Notice CRTC 2004-96, 16 December 2004 (Public Notice 2004-96), the Commission set out its revised approach to the assessment of requests to add non-Canadian third-language television services to the digital lists, as well as specific information that Canadian sponsors must file in support of their requests. The Commission will assess Quebecor's request in light of the approach set out in Public Notice 2004-96.

Call for comments

3. The Commission calls for comments on Quebecor's request for the addition of the three services noted above to the digital lists. Parties submitting comments on the request should also submit a true copy of their comments to the Canadian sponsor, Quebecor, at the following address:

Quebecor Media Inc.
300, avenue Viger Est
Montréal, Quebec
H2X 3W4
Facsimile: (514) 380-4664

4. Proof that comments have been sent to Quebecor must accompany the original version of the comments sent to the Commission.
5. Comments on Quebecor's request must be received by the Commission no later than 25 August 2005. A copy of the comments must be received by Quebecor no later than the deadline for receipt of comments by the Commission.
6. Quebecor may file a written reply to any comments received concerning its request. This reply should be filed with the Commission, and a copy sent to the person who submitted the comments, by no later than 9 September 2005.
7. The Commission will not formally acknowledge comments. It will, however, fully consider all comments and they will form part of the public record of the proceeding, provided that the procedures for filing set out below have been followed.
