Ottawa, 23 December 2008

Notice of consultation

Call for comments on a proposed regulatory framework for video-on-demand undertakings – Request for deferral of proceeding

The Commission calls for comments on a request from the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation that it defer for a period of 12 months the proceeding announced in Broadcasting Public Notice 2008-101. The deadline for the receipt of comments is 2 January 2009.

1. In Broadcasting Public Notice 2008-101, the Commission called for comments on a proposed regulatory framework for video-on-demand undertakings. The deadline for filing comments established in that proceeding is 29 January 2009. The deadline for the filing of replies is 12 March 2009.
2. The Commission has received a request from the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC), dated 12 December 2008, that it defer by 12 months the proceeding announced in Broadcasting Public Notice 2008-101. In support of its request, the CBC cited considerations that include other regulatory proceedings occurring in the same time frame. It also stated that most initiatives arising out of the new regulatory frameworks announced in Broadcasting Public Notice 2008-100 will not come into effect until the end of August 2011, and argued that there is thus no need to “fast track” this proceeding. Finally, the CBC submitted that this proceeding deals with the issue of advertising at a time when “the advertising market for all broadcasters, including CBC/SRC, has become very challenging.”

Process to comment on the requests

3. Parties may file any comments they might have with respect to the requests received from the CBC. The Commission will accept comments that it receives on or before 2 January 2009.
4. The Commission will not formally acknowledge comments. It will, however, fully consider all comments and they will form part of the public record of the proceeding, provided that the procedures for filing set out below have been followed.
