Item Applicant and Locality

1. Movie Central Ltd.
Western Canada
Application No. 2009-0697-7
2. Jack McGaw Consulting Incorporated
Halifax, Nova Scotia
Application No. 2009-0606-8

1. Western Canada
Application No. 2009-0697-7

Application by Movie Central Ltd. to amend the broadcasting licence for the pay television programming undertaking known as Movie Central in order to allow the service to be available for distribution in the high definition (HD) format.

The licensee is requesting that this amendment be valid until the end of its licence term.

This request is consistent with the Commission's approach to high definition specialty services stated in Regulatory framework for the licensing and distribution of high definition pay and specialty services, Broadcasting Public Notice 2006-74 and consistent with the changes announced in Regulatory frameworks for broadcasting distribution undertakings and discretionary programming services, Broadcasting Public Notice 2008-100.

2. Halifax, Nova Scotia
Application No. 2009-0606-8

Application by Jack McGaw Consulting Incorporated relating to the broadcasting licence of the English-language tourist information radio programming undertaking CIRH-FM Halifax.

The licensee proposes to change the authorized contours by decreasing the effective radiated power from 560 watts to 355 watts (non-directional antenna with an effective height of antenna above average terrain of 129 metres).

The licensee states that this change is necessary after it decided to use the existing antenna rather than to purchase a new antenna to implement the technical parameters approved in Broadcasting Decision 2008-50.

Public Participation

Deadline for Interventions/Comments

30 June 2009

The intervention must be received by the Commission and by the applicant on or before the above-mentioned date. The Commission cannot be held responsible for postal delays and will not notify a party whose intervention is received after the deadline date. The intervention will not be considered by the Commission and will not be part of the public file.

Interventions will be considered by the Commission and will form part of the public record of the proceeding without further notification to intervening parties, provided the procedure set out below has been followed. Parties will be contacted only if their submissions raise procedural questions.

Written interventions should be submitted to the Secretary General of the Commission in only one of the following formats:

by using the [\[Broadcasting interventions/comments form\]](#)

by mail to
CRTC, Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0N2

or by fax at 819-994-0218

A true copy must be sent to the applicant, and proof that this has been done must accompany the intervention sent to the Commission.

The Commission advises those who file and serve by electronic mode to exercise caution when using e-mail for service of documents or notification, as it may be difficult to establish that service has occurred.

Parties must ensure, before initiating service through electronic mode, that they will be able to satisfy the Commission, upon request, that service of the notification was completed.

Where the intervention is filed by electronic means, the line End of document should be entered following the last paragraph of the document, as an indication that the document has not been damaged during electronic transmission.

Each paragraph of the document should be numbered.

Interventions should clearly identify the application referred to and indicate whether parties support or oppose the application, or, if they propose changes to it, include the facts and grounds for their proposal.

Important notice

Note that all information that parties provide as part of this public process, except information granted confidentiality, whether sent by postal mail, facsimile, e-mail or through the Commission's website at www.crtc.gc.ca, becomes part of a publicly accessible file and will be posted on the Commission's website. This information includes personal information, such as full names, e-mail addresses, postal/street addresses, telephone and facsimile numbers, and any other personal information parties provide.

The personal information that parties provide will be used and may be disclosed for the purpose for which the information was obtained or compiled by the Commission, or for a use consistent with that purpose.

Documents received electronically or otherwise will be put on the Commission's website in their entirety exactly as received, including any personal information contained therein, in the official language and format in which they are received. Documents not received electronically will be available in PDF format.

Please note that the information that parties provide to the Commission as part of this public process is entered into an unsearchable database dedicated to this specific public process. This database is accessible only from the web page of this particular public process. As a result, a general search of our website with the help of either our own search engine or a third-party search engine will not provide access to the information that was provided as part of this public process.

Examination of documents

An electronic version of the applications is available from the Commission's website by selecting the application number within this notice.

A list of all interventions/comments will also be available on the Commission's website. An electronic version of all interventions/comments submitted will be accessible from this list. To access the list, select "Lists of interventions/comments" under "Public Proceedings" from the Commission's website.

Documents are also available during normal office hours at the local address provided in this notice and at the Commission offices and documentation centres directly involved with these applications, or, upon request, within 2 working days, at any other Commission offices and documentation centres.
