Ottawa, 17 December 2009

Call for comments on new draft regulations concerning CRTC Rules of Practice and Procedure

Additions to procedure

1. In Broadcasting and Telecom Notice of Consultation 2009-602, 30 September 2009, for which the scope was clarified by Broadcasting and Telecom Notice of Consultation 2009-602-1, 23 November 2009, the Commission did not provide for a right for parties to submit written replies to the written submissions of other parties. By letter dated 10 December 2009, Bell Canada has requested that the Commission provide for such a right.
2. The Commission considers that the opportunity for parties to reply to the written submissions of other parties would be beneficial given the important issues raised in this proceeding. Accordingly, the Commission invites parties to file replies to matters raised in the initial written submissions by 22 January 2009. Replies should be no longer than 10 pages and are to be received, not merely sent, by that date. The receipt of these replies will close the record of the proceeding.
