Call for comments on proposed amendments to certain Regulations made under the Broadcasting Act to add a new program category

The Commission calls for written comments on proposed amendments to the list of program categories set out in Schedule I of the Television Broadcasting Regulations, 1987, the Pay Television Regulations, 1990 and the Specialty Services Regulations, 1990. The deadline for comments is 1 March 2011.

Introduction

1. The Commission proposes to amend Schedule I of the Television Broadcasting Regulations, 1987, the Pay Television Regulations, 1990 and the Specialty Services Regulations, 1990. The proposed amendments are set out in the appendix to this document.
2. In Definitions for television program categories, Broadcasting Regulatory Policy CRTC 2010-808, 1 November 2010 (the Regulatory Policy), the Commission set out revised definitions for certain program categories to ensure that these definitions still accurately capture all of the types of programs offered by television broadcasters.
3. In this regard, the Commission announced the creation of a new category, category 11(b), for programming categorized as “Reality television.” Accordingly, in the Regulatory Policy, the Commission announced that it would amend Schedule I of the Television Broadcasting Regulations, 1987, the Pay Television Regulations, 1990 and the Specialty Services Regulations, 1990 to include this new category.
4. The amendments will come into force on the day on which they are registered. As of that date, licensees will need to add this new category to their program logs where applicable. Licensees that are currently authorized by a condition of licence to broadcast programs from category 11 “General entertainment and human interest” will be considered to have authority to broadcast programs from both category 11(a) and 11(b) without the need for further amendment to their licences.

Call for comments

5. The Commission invites comments on the wording of the proposed amendments appended to this Notice of Consultation. The Commission will accept comments that it receives on or before 1 March 2011. The Commission cannot be held responsible for postal delays and will not notify a party whose comment is received after the deadline date. The comment will not be considered by the Commission and will not be part of the public file.

6. The Commission will not formally acknowledge comments. It will, however, fully consider all comments and they will form part of the public record of the proceeding, provided that the procedures for filing set out below have been followed.

Procedure for filing comments

7. Interested parties can file their comments to the Secretary General of the Commission in only one of the following formats:

by using the [\[Broadcasting interventions/comments form\]](#)

or by mail to CRTC, Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0N2

or by fax at 819-994-0218

8. Submissions longer than five pages should include a summary.
9. Each paragraph of the submission should be numbered. In addition, where the comment is filed by electronic means, the line End of document should be entered following the last paragraph of the document, as an indication that the document has not been damaged during electronic transmission.

Important notice

10. All information that parties provide as part of this public process, except information granted confidentiality, whether sent by postal mail, facsimile, e-mail or through the Commission's website at www.crtc.gc.ca, becomes part of a publicly accessible file and will be posted on the Commission's website. This information includes personal information, such as full names, e-mail addresses, postal/street addresses, telephone and facsimile numbers, and any other personal information parties provide.
11. The personal information that parties provide will be used and may be disclosed for the purpose for which the information was obtained or compiled by the Commission, or for a use consistent with that purpose.

12. Documents received electronically or otherwise will be put on the Commission's website in their entirety exactly as received, including any personal information contained therein, in the official language and format in which they are received. Documents not received electronically will be available in PDF format.
13. The information that parties provide to the Commission as part of this public process is entered into an unsearchable database dedicated to this specific public process. This database is accessible only from the web page of this particular public process. As a result, a general search of the Commission's website with the help of either its own search engine or a third-party search engine will not provide access to the information that was provided as part of this public process.
14. The Commission encourages interested parties to monitor the public examination file and the Commission's website for additional information that they may find useful when preparing their comments.

Examination of documents

15. A list of all comments will also be available on the Commission's website. An electronic version of all comments submitted will be accessible from this list. To access the list, select "Lists of interventions/comments" under "Public Proceedings" from the Commission's website.
16. The public may examine public comments and related documents at the following Commission offices during normal business hours.
