Administrative renewals – Corrections

1. In Broadcasting Decision 2011-556, as amended by Broadcasting Decisions 2011-556-1 and 2011-556-2, the Commission renewed the broadcasting licences for the radio programming undertakings listed in the appendix to that decision, from 1 September 2011 to 31 March 2012.
2. In addition, the Commission notes that it inadvertently omitted to include as part of these administrative renewals the transmitter CHRT-FM Trail, British Columbia, of the station CKQR-FM Castlegar, British Columbia, of the licensee Vista Radio Ltd.
3. The Commission notes that the following undertakings were erroneously included in the appendix to that decision and hereby deletes them from the list of undertakings included in that appendix:
 - CHTK Prince Rupert, licensed to Astral Media Radio (Toronto) Inc. and 4382072 Canada Inc., partners in a general partnership carrying on business as Astral Media Radio G.P., which was converted to the FM band in Broadcasting Decision 2011-19. The broadcasting licence of that undertaking expires 31 August 2017.
 - CKGR Golden, licensed to Astral Media Radio (Toronto) Inc. and 4382072 Canada Inc., partners in a general partnership carrying on business as Astral Media Radio G.P., which was converted to the FM band in Broadcasting Decision 2010-764. The broadcasting licence of that undertaking expires 31 August 2014.
 - CFGT Alma, licensed to Groupe Radio Antenne 6 inc., which was converted to the FM band in Broadcasting Decision 2009-507. The broadcasting licence of that undertaking expires 31 August 2016.
 - CKDH Amherst, licensed to Maritime Broadcasting System Limited, which was converted to the FM band in Broadcasting Decision 2009-224. The broadcasting licence of that undertaking expires 31 August 2015.
 - CJOA-FM-1 Candy Mountain, of the licensee Thunder Bay Christian Radio. This transmitter of the station CJOA-FM Thunder Bay, Ontario, was deleted in Broadcasting Decision 2006-509.
